DASP = Departing Australia Superannuation Payment (Togiga o tupe litaea ma fano ki tua mo Ausitalia)

The screenshot shows the Australian Government Department of Home Affairs website for the Departing Australia Superannuation payment (DASP). The page title is 'Help with the DASP online application system'. A sidebar on the left lists menu items: Home, Individuals and families, Businesses and organisations, Tax and super professionals. The main content area is titled 'On this page' and includes links for 'Creating a shared secret', 'Information you must provide with your application', 'Incorrect visa information', 'If DASP Online doesn't find your super', 'Re-entering the online system', 'Response and processing times', 'To submit you must have left Australia and no longer hold an active visa', and 'Contact us'. Below this, a section titled 'Creating a shared secret' explains the process of creating a shared secret for the first use of the system.

Saina ki luga DASP Online kae koi nofo koe i Ausitalia kae kamata tau fakatagi.

The screenshot shows the Australian Government Department of Home Affairs website for checking visa details and conditions. The page title is 'Check visa details and conditions'. It features a large image of pink flowers. Below the image, there are tabs for 'Overview', 'Check conditions online (VEVO)', 'See visa conditions', and 'Conditions list'. The 'Check conditions online (VEVO)' tab is selected. A sub-section titled 'Check conditions online (VEVO)' provides information about the service, stating that it's available for holders of work, study, and other visas. It also notes that VEVO can only provide information about people who have their details available in our system. You may need to contact the Australian Embassy or Consulate if your details are not yet available in our system or if Australia has not yet received your application for a decision. Some people may have an implied visa. If you're not sure if you have a visa, you can check that you've been granted a visa by the Australian Government. It also states that you can check that you're eligible to work or study in Australia. A note at the bottom says that Australian citizens have unlimited rights to work or study in Australia & you cannot use VEVO to confirm the status of your visa or citizenship. You should always check your visa documents before you travel.
